As I said over the phone, I am requesting a meeting so I can explain my ethics complaint against Gianluca Setti in connection with an upcoming IEEE conference on the Shroud of Turin to be held in Bari, Italy on Sept. 4, 2014. As I tried to explain to Joseph Kalasky and Roberto DeMarca by submitting documents, the conference is an exercise in pro-religion pseudoscience. My concern is that IEEE Xplore will be obliged to publish garbage. If I am mistaken about this, then there is no urgency for a meeting. At our meeting, I'll explain what Setti is doing that is unethical, and you can explain to me why no harm will come if the conference takes place with IEEE endorsement.

In my last conversation with Mr. Kalasky, he told me it would take two months for him to write a report to the President. I also called Dom DeMarco to ask for an appointment.

Sent emailed and phone message asking for interview.
