Notes Dear David
Like St Thomas, I don't devote a huge amount of time or space to arguments for God's existence as I think the real drama and philosophical interest is in how one relates to God (St Thomas wrote 1 article on the subject of the "five proofs" in the ST, plus 2 supporting articles, whereas he wrote 1004 articles on the virtuous life in union with God). So I have never really developed much expertise in the minutiae of the proofs, although I like the cosmological proof best. So I shall take a look when I can, but I cannot promise to do much at the moment, or to have too much to offer
