Dear Fr. Chamberland,

Along with Msgr. Gregory Ketcham (309-662-7361), Fr. Anthony Stephens, and Msgr. Eugene Morris, the Newman Connection website says you are a spiritual advisor to that organization. I contacted Msgr. Ketcham because I want to give a developmental lesson to Catholic college students about the arguments for God's existence. I've attached the handout I'll be using. This is a link to an article I wrote about this topic:

https://www.academia.edu/23340072/WHY_PEOPLE_BELIEVE_GOD_CAUSED_THE_BIG_BANG

I've also attached a pdf file of my exchange of emails with Msgr. Ketcham, who I just spoke to. Msgr. Ketcham said he is not interested in helping me and did not understand why his name was on the Newman Connection website. My request to you is the same as my request to Msgr. Ketcham. I want you to call St. Joseph's Seminary and the Immaculate Conception Seminary, and persuade them to respond positively to my request to give their faculty and students my lesson. I want spiritual leaders to endorse my intended mission to Catholic college students.

My correspondence with the Catholic Church about this is at <http://www.newevangelist.me>. The pdf file gives additional information about my request to the two seminaries.
