I just faxed you a letter I sent to the CEO of the AAAS about an absurd article published in the American Journal of Physics about evolution and thermodynamics. I am doing this to show how many heads of physics departments in the US are helping the AJP cover up its mistake in publishing the article. The proof of your complicity is here:

<http://www.pseudoscience123.com/resources/robert-scherrer.pdf>

There is another matter that should concern you. The Magis Center is promoting the "first cause" argument of Thomas Aquinas based on the Big Bang and "fine-tuning." I've brought this matter to the attention of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and am hoping they will let me explain to them the harm that the Magis Center is doing. If the USCCB refuses my request, I'll feel obliged to file a canonical complaint against Bishop Charles Chaput. I explain why the Magis Center is wrong at <http://ezinearticles.com/?Fallacious-Arguments-That-God-Exists&id=9065995>

The person I've asked to see at the USCCB is Rebecca Ruesch who is caught between a rock and a hard place. If she refuses to see me, she won't be carrying out her responsibilities to the Catholic Church. If she meets with me, she will incur the wrath of her supervisors.

Very truly yours, David Roemer
